Dear Parents and Carers,

Owls Class educational visit to Stickman at Queen's Theatre, Barnstaple. Tuesday 30th November

We have arranged for Owls Class to visit Queen's Theatre to watch a production of Stickman. We have booked the 10.30 show. As a school we aim to develop the love of reading and Julia Donaldson's books bring immense pleasure to young children. Watching the well-known characters spring to life creates life long memories and a different perspective of the book.

For more information about the performance please follow the link.

The children will leave school on the 30th November, close to 9.00am. We will bring snacks and the children's water bottles with us, and will eat our packed lunches when we return to school at approximately 1:00pm.

Children need to wear school uniform and must also bring a coat. They will need a packed lunch and a secure, refillable drinks bottle. (No glass bottles, fizzy drinks, chocolate bars or sweets please.) A school packed lunch can be requested, please indicate this School Gateway comments box.

The cost of this trip is £22.00 per child. Unfortunately, there are no funds available to subsidise the visit, if we do not receive full contributions for all pupils the visit will not be able to take place. We have to carefully cost every trip as parents cannot be asked to subsidise others. This does mean that our costings rely upon every child participating. If your circumstances are such that you are unable to pay this contribution, please arrange an appointment to discuss this in confidence with the Headteacher.

Payment and permission has been set up on the School Gateway, please log on and reply by Tuesday 23rd November, after this date the visit will no longer be visible on the School Gateway. Please state if you require a school packed lunch.

Regards,
Mrs Bourner
